MARCH 2022

THE RED LINE

Greetings Fellow Republicans!

I attended the exhilarating and exciting RPNM Pre-Primary Convention in Ruidoso, NM, last weekend as a Delegate of the Sandoval County Republican Party. I must say, Ruidoso is so stunningly beautiful, and Mt. Sierra Blanca is even more impressive - snow-capped and displayed in all her splendor! I look forward to visiting Ruidoso again, in May, at the NMFRW Summer Meeting (Details on page 2).

One thing I found vastly impressive was the number of women candidates running in races to change the trajectory for the good of our state and country! How timely it is that March is “Women in History” Month. We have some fantastic women candidates who are dedicated and committed to the Republican Party; many of which are members of the Federated Republican Women!

Our club is so proud of these women, and I’m confident that there will be more FRW women in the future who will join the ranks of those women to support our conservative values as elected officials. This year’s theme is “Providing Healing, Promoting Hope”, and what a great opportunity we have at this time in our history to live out this theme. San-Bern FRW will continue to support stellar candidates for all our elections, so we need to get involved now to help them get elected. Perhaps you are one of those who would like to get involved; if so, please contact us today!

Our February Event, “Hopeful Hearts”, was well received! Valentine goody bags were delivered to our members (except those with gates and P.O. Boxes). If you did not receive a Valentine goody bag, and would like one, or know someone who has not renewed their membership for 2022 and would like to, please contact us! Call Mary Kafka at (505) 227-7569 and she will be happy to take care of it!

We have a superb luncheon event lined up for you for March! Join us to hear Anthony Thornton, candidate for Lieutenant Governor of NM, and Michelle Garcia Holmes, candidate for U.S. Congress, District 1. We are also including a fabulous “Cabi” Fashion Show, presented by Michelle Rainwater! (See page 3). All proceeds go to the Republican candidates in the upcoming 2022 elections. You may sign up early for this event. Seating is limited, so be sure to RSVP ASAP!

Pelican’s East Steak & Seafood will again host us during the restoration of the Westside Pelican’s, which is almost finished! The food and service are extraordinary! Sign up and bring a friend! Call Mary Kafka at (505) 227-7569 to make your reservation. You can sign up and pay anytime online: www.sanbernfrw.org.

Moving onward and upward in unison,

Jeanette Clark,
President, San-Bern FRW

San-Bern FRW Bylaws Vote Update:

Due to lack of votes needed to pass the Bylaws Amendments, the San-Bern FRW will present another voting opportunity at a later time. Note: In order to validate the ballot votes, and pass the Bylaws amendments as proposed, we needed to receive completed ballots from 2/3 of the membership within the 30 day period, and the Bylaws Chair received ballots from only half of the membership.

$5.00 Contributions Needed for Conservative Judicial Candidates!

They are only 125 away from meeting the goal! We must exceed the minimum however as you are well aware of the games the SOS plays and will try to disqualify as many forms/contributions as she can. Could you forward this email to all of your chapter presidents and ask if they have any other individuals they might be able to collect from so we can be sure we qualify for these funds? As a reminder this is the only way the candidates will be able to run their campaigns so it is critical that they all qualify.

"Hopeful Hearts" February 2022

"This year, the officers of the San-Bern FRW decided to once again show our gratitude to our membership by delivering special Valentine's Day treats to each of them at their home on Saturday, February 12th. Jeanette Clark, Mary Kafka and Saralee Wisner covered the members' homes from as far south as I-40 in NE & NW Albuquerque to as far north as 550 in Bernalillo. Along the way we were able to greet many of the ladies and/or their husbands, all of whom were surprised and happy to receive their special Valentine. A brief conversation was enjoyed with them, and their response to these visits proved even more special than the treats!" -Saralee Wisner, Secretary

RPNM Pre-Primary Convention Highlights – February 25-26, 2022

REPUBLICAN DELEGATES AT PRE-PRIMARY STATE CONVENTION ELECT CANDIDATES FOR PRIMARY ELECTION

Nearly 1,000 Republicans from across the state attended RPNM's Pre-Primary State Convention in Ruidoso on Saturday. Hundreds of delegates elected Primary candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and New Mexico's three Congressional seats. The Primary Election is June 7. The votes capped an exciting and successful Convention administered by Convention Chair and RPNM Chairman Steve Pearce.

The followed candidates will be on the June ballot:

Governor: Jay Block received the most votes and will top the ballot. Rebecca Dow and Greg Zanetti also got enough votes to be on the ballot.

Lt. Governor: Anthony Thornton will be the only GOP candidate on the ballot.

1st Congressional District: Louis Sanchez will top the ballot. Michelle Garcia Holmes is also on the ballot.

In order for candidates to get their name on the Primary ballot, they must receive at least 20% of the vote. Those candidates who received less may still get on the ballot by collecting more signatures to try to qualify.

year. We have elected a top-flight group of candidates who are focused, diverse and who all adhere to conservative principles and values.
